A children's special

Which Witch is Which is a fun play for children, presented in one act. There will be no intermission. We do have a request from our stage manager, Cleo, to all children. She may need your help and your voices so please help Cleo when she asks. You may want to help sing too, so you will find everyone's favourite song on the back of this programme.

Chorus girls are dressed in pink,
And flamingoes too, I think;
How I'd love a dress that's gay,
Witchy twitchy, diddley day.

Yellow is so clean and bright,
Girls in yellow look just right;
How I'd love a dress that's gay;
Witchy twitchy, diddley day.

Blue is lovely, red is bold;
Silver's pretty, so is gold.
Orange makes me think of fall;
Pink would be the best of all.

Pink's for tulips in a row;
Pink would make your cheeks aglow;
How I'd love a dress that's gay,
Witchy twitchy, diddley day.

Plus Six in Song

"I personally recommend this highly talented group of singers who present a most entertaining evening of variety with music and humour from concert and music hall."
