four more fine plays for your pleasure

1992-1993

THE REAL THING

Tom Stoppard

Witty, intelligent, a thoroughly delightful comedy about the realities of friendship, love and marriage. Funny, subtle, sometimes serious. It challenges the audience to the Real Thing.

Tom Stoppard at his best!

October 21-24 1992

BEYOND REASONABLE DOUBT

by Jeffrey Archer

Laughter, tears, tension... a gripping courtroom drama and compelling love story from one of Britain's best contemporary writers.

January 20-23 1993

by William Shakespeare

The Bard of Avon returns to Kanata with another of his golden comedies. The ageless tale of Rosalind and her seductive romp in the Forest of Arden.

March 3-6 1993

LEND ME A TENOR

Ken Ludwig

Tony Award winning farce has a Cleveland Opera Company in an uproar when their visiting Italian tenor disappears. One of the freshest and funniest plays in years.
