2021-2022

Outside Mullingar by John Patrick Shanley
Directed by Alain Chamsi February 1-5 and 8-12, 2022

Outside Mullingar is about the romance of Anthony and Rosemary, neighbors in rural Ireland, who are nearing their middle years. It is by turns poetic, uplifting, dark and funny as hell. Anthony is an introverted farmer and Rosemary is the woman who vows to have him at all costs. When Anthony's father threatens to disinherit his son, Rosemary steps into the middle of a land feud and family eccentricities beyond what one might imagine. On the brink of romantic catastrophe, this one-of-a-kind Irish heroine fights against time and mortality in hopes of securing her dream of love.

Opening Night by Norm Foster
Directed by Brian McManus March 22-26 and March 29-April 2, 2022

Opening night follows the madcap antics as Jack and Ruth Tisdale celebrate their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary with an evening at the theatre. It's a dream come true for Ruth and an imposition for Jack who would rather be at home watching the World Series. However, after the events both on and off the stage that fateful night, their lives and those of all of those involved are irreparably altered.

The Savannah Sipping Society by Jessie Jones, Nicholas Hope and Jamie Wooten
Directed by Michael Gareau May 10-14 and 17-21, 2022

The Savannah Sipping Society is one of those delightful, laugh-out-loud comedies, very much akin to a modern day Golden Girls. Four very unique Southern women, all needing an escape from their day-to-day routines, are drawn together by Fate—and an impromptu happy hour—and decide it's high time to reclaim the enthusiasm for life they've all lost through the years. Over the course of six months, filled with laughter, hilarious misadventures, and an abundance of liquid libation, these middle-aged women successfully bond and find the confidence to jumpstart their new lives, realizing it's never too late to make "new" old friends.

The Ron Maslin Playhouse is a modern 350-seat theatre situated just off Terry Fox Drive, south of the Queensway in Kanata.
